Description:

Pioneers of Pagonia is the ultimate simulation in a world of countless islands populated with scattered villages where you travel as a visionary. Under your leadership, your people forge alliances with the other inhabitants, after helping each other and gaining their trust. Send out your pioneers to discover untouched soil, find hidden resources and explore secret places.

Enjoy the fantastical and inviting world of Pagonia, where your carefully considered decisions help you reach your goals. Watch thousands of inhabitants bustle about to satisfy your orders.

Use your creativity to build up your road network and economy, which offers an enormous depth of play with over 40 building types, more than 70 different goods and widely branched production chains. Each transport of goods, production process and exploration by your population is brought to life through stunning animations.

Protect your population with patrolling guards, specialized fighters and different mysticists from hostile animals, plundering bandits and mythical creatures.

Explore the infinite variations of the procedurally generated maps, which offer new challenges every time.

About Envision:

Envision Entertainment was founded in 2013 at Ingelheim near Frankfurt, Germany. The 20-person team, consisting mainly of former Phenomic Game Development (later: EA Phenomic) employees who worked on hit games such as SpellForce, BattleForge, Lord of Ultima and C&C: Tiberium Alliances, focuses on the development of strategy games. In 2016, Envision Entertainment won the German Computer Game Award for "Best Mobile Game" for its smartphone strategy game Path of War. In 2023, the new IP Pioneers of Pagonia will launch in Early Access on Steam, a final release date is yet to be announced.
